6. TAX DEDUCTED AT SOURCE

- 6.1. The consideration payable under this Exit Offer would be chargeable as capital gains under Section 45 of the IT Act or as business profits under Section 28 of the IT Act, as the case may be.

6.2. All Residual Shareholders would be either classified as resident or non-resident. The status as resident or nonresident is to be determined on the basis of criteria laid down in Section 6 of the IT Act.

(i) In case of Resident Shareholders:

No tax is required to be deducted on payment of consideration to resident Residual Shareholders.

(ii) In case of Foreign Institutional Investors (“FIIs”) / FPIs:

As per the provisions of Section 196D(2) of the IT Act, no deduction of tax at source is required to be made from income by way of capital gains arising from transfer of securities payable to a FII or FPI as defined in Section 115AD of the IT Act.

(iii) In case of non-resident shareholders, including NRIs:

- a. As per the provisions of Section 195(1) of the IT Act, any person responsible for paying to a non-resident any sum chargeable to tax is required to deduct tax at the prescribed rate (including applicable surcharge and education cess) and subject to the provisions of the relevant tax treaty. Accordingly, income-tax may have to be deducted at source in the case of Nonresident Indian / foreign company at the rate under the IT Act or under the tax treaty, whichever is beneficial to the shareholder unless a lower withholding tax certificate obtained from the tax authorities is furnished to the Acquirer.
- b. The consideration payable to Non-Resident Residual Shareholders would be subject to deduction of tax at source at applicable rate of tax (including applicable surcharge and education cess), based on the documents submitted along with the Exit Application Form.
- c. If the non-resident shareholder requires the Acquirer not to deduct tax, or to deduct tax at a lower rate, or on a lower amount, for any reason, they would need to obtain a certificate from the Income- tax authorities, either under Section 195(3) or under Section 197 of the IT Act, and submit the same while submitting the Exit Application Form. In absence of such certificate from the Income-tax authorities, the Acquirer shall deduct tax at source at applicable rate of tax (including applicable surcharge and education cess), based on the documents submitted along with the Exit Application Form.
- d. As per the provisions of Section 2(37A)(iii) of the IT Act for the purposes of withholding tax under Section 195 the rates of income-tax specified in this behalf in the applicable Finance Act or the rate or rates of income-tax specified in the double tax avoidance agreement (“DTAA”) entered into by the Central Government under section 90 of the IT Act, whichever is applicable by virtue of the provisions of Section 90, or Section 90A, as the case may be, i.e. whichever is beneficial, would be the applicable rate of tax. If the Non- Resident Shareholder opts to avail the beneficial provisions as per DTAA, a tax residency certificate of such person from the tax authorities of the country of which such person is the tax resident and prescribed Form 10F, along with all the other prescribed information, should be submitted along with the Exit Application Form. In absence of such certificate, the Acquirer shall deduct the tax as per paragraph 6(iii)(a) to 6(iii)(c) above.
- e. In case of a NRI, where it is claimed that he is governed by the provisions of Section 115E of the IT Act, he should submit the relevant information as requested in the Exit Application Form, along with documents in support thereof and to the satisfaction of the Acquirer. In case the information and documents are not submitted or the Acquirer is not satisfied regarding the same, then the rate of tax would be that as applicable to any other non-residents. These can either be documents proving that the Shares were purchased by the Shareholders either from foreign remittances or from funds lying in the NRE account or FCNR account and that these Shares have been declared as such in the return of income filed by the shareholders.

- f. In case of any ambiguity, incomplete or conflicting information or information not being provided by the non-resident shareholders, the tax shall be deducted at the maximum rate prescribed for such non-resident shareholder.
- g. In order to determine the tax implications pursuant to sale of shares, it is advised to consult your tax advisors for the applicable tax provisions including the treatment that may be given by your respective assessing officers in your case, and the appropriate course of action that you should take including submitting any documents along with the Exit Application Form for the purpose of deduction of tax.

(iv) Other Information:

 - (ii) Similarly, where a capital asset is held for a period of more than 24 months prior to the date of transfer, the same shall be treated as a long-term capital asset, and the gains arising therefrom shall be taxable as long-term capital gains.
 - (iii) The Acquirer will rely on the documents provided by the Equity Shareholder as to whether the capital asset being equity shares of the Company constitute short-term or long-term capital asset for the Shareholder, for the purpose of deduction of taxes at source.
 - (iv) Where the information provided by the Equity Shareholder is ambiguous, incomplete or conflicting or the information is not available regarding the same, the capital gain shall be assumed to be short-term in nature.
- b. The rate of deduction of tax in the case of non-residents is dependent on various factors. - d. For the purpose of computing the tax deduction at source, Shareholders who wish to sale their Shares must submit the documents as required along with the Exit Application Form.
- e. The tax deducted under this Exit Offer is not the final liability of the Residual Shareholders or in no way discharge the obligation of Residual Shareholders to disclose the amount received pursuant to this sale of shares.
- f. If for any reasons, the income-tax department raises a vicarious liability and seeks to recover the tax on the transaction (which is actually tax liability of the Shareholder), the Shareholder agrees to indemnify the same.
